

Ilan and the Candy Store

Ilan skips to the candy store to get some candy and cake for his picnic party

Ilan asks the lady in the candy store: "Can I take a lot of candy and cake for my picnic party?"

The lady tells Ilan: "Yes Ilan, take all the candy and cake!"

Ilan fills his bag with candy and cake, more and more and more...

Oh, no! Ilan's bag tore! The candy and cake spill in the store! Ilan begins to cry.

The lady tells Ilan: "Don't cry anymore, take a big, big bag and fill it with the candy and cake"

Ilan fills the bag with a lot more candy and cake.

Ilan's friends like the candy and cake at his picnic party.

GO FISH GAME

Print template of fish, glue on stock paper and/or laminate.

Attach a metal paper clip to the corner of each card.

Take two (or number of players) chopsticks or dowel and tie a long string at the end of the "fishing rod". At the other end of the string, glue a small magnet.

Place the fish word cards into a hat or bowl, each player used his/her fishing rod to "fish" a fish card.

She/He then has to read the word out loud and answer a WH question the other player asks her/him relating the word to the story.

For example: the word fished is "party". The WH question can be "Whose party is it?"

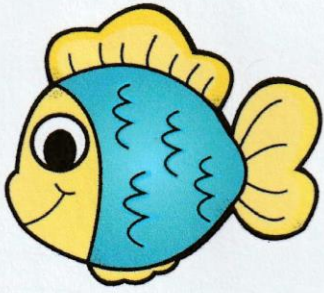

Template of the fish without words can be downloaded from this site:
