

Gail and Craig Visit the Farm

Gail is Craig's sister. Today it may soon rain, but they visit a farm. They help the people in the farm.

The horses are waiting to be fed. Gail feeds the horses and Craig cleans the barn.

Suddenly, Gail feels a pain, she's going to faint... Craig gives Gail an ice cream and soon Gail feels better, she's not afraid.

Gail and Craig are done. Gail doesn't feel faint. They go to swim in the river together.

The people in the huge farm love Gail and Craig but it's time to go home before it rains.

The people in the farm thank Gail and Craig. They said: "Wait! Stay! But if you must go, please come to visit again!"
