Danny is a Star

This is Bill. He rides a red car.
He has a party. He is sad. Is he late?

This is Danny. He rides a red bike.
He is in the army.
He helps friends. He is happy.

It is dark. Bill rides fast.
Danny's bike is far.

The car's tire! The car's tire is flat!

I can help!

"Help!" yells Bill.
"I can help," Danny yells back.

Danny is my star!

Danny helps Bill.
Bill is happy. He is at the party.
He isn't late. Bill said, "Danny is my star!"

Instructions
Pupil chooses a word from the list (1-12).
Teacher points to each column and asks pupil if he sees the word he chose.
Teacher counts up the dots on top of the chosen columns.
The sum is the number of the word on the list.
Example: army.
Army (num. 6 on the list) appears under dots •• and ••••

You can use this game for other lessons – just change the twelve words on the list, and place them in the appropriate column. Your learners might like doing this "magic" for their friends!
