

Angel and the Two Gorillas

Angel went to the city.

She visited the circus to see two large gorillas named George and Marge.

George and Marge lived in a huge cage.

Angel gave them two oranges but George grabbed both of them!

That made Marge cry...

...so Angel gave her another orange and some celery.

But that made George cry!

Angel promised to come back another day with more oranges and celery, but no more grabbing!

This game has easier (match word to word) and harder (match picture to word) versions. Print and laminate the two boards and the words and pictures for the "grab bags." Cut up the words and pictures, and put them in two separate bags.

To play: Learner pulls a word out of the bag and reads it aloud, then both of the players find it on their boards and place a marker on it.

(Harder version: pulls a picture out of the bag and finds the word on the board.)

The first to get four in a row in any direction is the winner!
